

RIGHTS OF THE CHILD

Every child has the right:

to enjoy these rights regardless of race, colour, sex, religion, national or social origin to special care if handicapped to free education and recreation to be a useful member of society and to develop individual ability to affection, love, understanding to be brought up in a spirit of peace and universal brotherhood.

to a name and nationality to full opportunity for play to adequate housing, nutrition, medical care to be among the first to receive relief in times of disaster